BOROUGH MAY START FOGGING ON SATURDAY

The borough highway department expects to begin spraying with its new fogging machine, purchased last Monday night at a cost of $1,946, on Saturday, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner said today, if the work of preparing the machine for use is completed in time.

The highway committee of the council purchased a two-wheeled trailer Thursday to carry the fogging machine, and the latter has been installed on the trailer, Mr. Winebrenner said. Other work being done at the H and H machine shop includes installation of a 55-gallon insecticide tank, fire extinguisher, and controls so that the fogging machine can be operated from the seat of the tractor which will haul it.

Worst Places First

Mr. Winebrenner said that the insecticide ordered arrived Thursday night. Eight gallons of the DDT solution will be mixed with 47 gallons of fuel oil for spraying, at the rate of 14 gallons per hour, he said.

The worst of the mosquito-breeding places will be sprayed first, according to the borough engineer. He said if the machine can be placed in operation Saturday, borough employees will spray along Rock Creek, The Tiber, at the brick yard and in low spots where breeding is heaviest.

COUPLE SEEKS MISSING MAN

Parents of the wife of the missing witness in the McKeesport bank embezzlement case came here today in the hope of finding some trace or means of contacting the man who has not been seen since he parked his car June 6 at the Service Parking Center here and paid a week's rental for car space.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. George Mayes, of McKeesport, expressed the hope that their son-in-law, Herbert A. Langsdorf, may be in hiding in this area and might see a newspaper appeal for him to contact them "if possible." They said their telephone at McKeesport is never left unattended in the hope that word may come from the missing man.

The couple added that Langsdorf has nothing to fear in the now recessed embezzlement trial. "His testimony can't hurt anyone," Mrs. Mayes said. He had been scheduled to appear as a witness for the FBI in the trial. He was not an employee of the bank but worked as a bookkeeper for a man involved in the case.

The car, which Langsdorf left here with the statement he would return for it in a week, has been taken back to McKeesport. A picture of Langsdorf, brought here by Mr. and Mrs. Mayes, has been identified as the man who parked the car and paid the week's charge in advance.

Here And There News Collected At Random

The Pennsylvania Canning Industry, comprising more than 100 companies operating 150 plants, processes more than $200,000,000 worth of canned foods a year. Its payroll exceeds $20,000,000 and its products are nationally known for their quality and richness of flavor.

These processors use 270,000 tons of five major vegetables from approximately 9,000 farms. This represents 85 per cent of the state's production of snap beans and Lima beans. 54,300 acres are required to produce this crop valued at 10,728,000.

Eight thousand tons of sour cherries, more than 70 per cent of the state production, were processed last year, and more than 50 per cent of Pennsylvania's fruit crop is canned by the industry. Pennsylvania is fifth in the nation in the production of apples, sour cherries and peaches, and a goodly portion come from Adams County. Forty counties in the state produce food for processors.

Food processors also use 70 per cent of a $25,000,000 crop of mushrooms, the latter being 65 per cent of the national output.

Pennsylvania farmers have received more than $80,000,000 in the past ten years for their crops of the five major vegetables.

ANNUAL CHERRY HARVEST IN FULL SWING THIS WEEK

The annual cherry harvest was in full swing today with an estimated 1,500 countians engaged in collecting the harvest of some 2,000 tons of cherries from the tree.

Reports from the fruit growing section indicate that the harvest will be completed by the end of next week, with some orchards already cleared of the fruit.

Quality of the crop was described as excellent by Willis Beidler, chief chemist, and Don Horst, crop supervisor at the C. H. Musselman Co. plant.

Processors Busy

Processing of the crop at both C. H. Musselman's and the Knouse Foods plants is moving rapidly, with estimates being that the canning and processing of the cherries will continue at the plants until about the end of July.

While no official count was made of last year's crop, it was estimated that it was about 2,000 tons, and this year's crop is expected by some growers to equal last year's production.

Prices are a little higher, according to reports, with the C. H. Musselman paying 8 1/2 cents a pound for U. S. No. 1 and 2 1/2 cents for juice grade.

Urges Post-Harvest Spray

Last year the price generally was about eight cents a pound for No. 1 cherries. Pickers for the most part are receiving 25 cents an eight-quart bucket, the same price as paid last year.

County Agent M. T. Hartman issued details of a post harvest spray for the cherry orchards, to prevent cherry leaf spot and control Japanese beetles and cherry slugs. Hartman reported Japanese beetles as "fairly abundant" and that the fungus causing leaf spot is active and more severe than for several years.

The recommended materials for dilute sprays, per 100 gallons of spray, are two pounds of copper sulphate, plus six pounds of fresh spray lime, plus two pounds of a 50 per cent wettable powder DDT. For concentrate sprays the amounts should be tripled. The spray, Hartman said, should be applied as soon as possible after the fruit has been picked.

Storm Damage Cited

There were some who dissented from the 2,000 ton crop estimate. Ryland Garretson, president of the Pennsylvania Cherry Growers Association, held that much damage had been done the past week or two by wind whipl and hail-cutting down the expected production from earlier estimates, as well as cutting down the quality of the fruit. A number of young orchards originally expected to come into production this year failed to produce as scheduled, Garretson said.

The 8 1/2 cent per pound price this year, as compared to a 7 1/2 to 8 cent price last year, may go slightly higher toward the end of the season, it was indicated. Growers reported out-of-county purchasers were offering 9 cents a pound this morning.

State Senate Brushes Aside Democratic Opposition And Passes Sales Tax 32 To 18

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Republican-controlled Senate, brushing aside Democratic opposition, passed the 1 per cent sales tax today.

The vote was 32-18, strictly along party lines.

The action ended a session-long controversy over the type of taxes to impose to close a 118 million dollar gap in the Commonwealth's $1,400,000,000 budget for the 1953-55 biennium.

Goes To Governor
The House passed the measure Wednesday after months of maneuvering. In contrast, the Senate approved it in only three days, the minimum required by the constitution.

The sales tax bill will go to Gov. John S. Fine for certain approval on Monday, after it has been signed by presiding officers of the two branches.

The sales tax was estimated to yield 125 million dollars in the two year period. It was earmarked for education.

Beat Down Amendments
Before the vote the Republican majority beat down a series of Democratic amendments seeking to extend further exemptions already provided by the bill.

Other Democratic amendments defeated included those requiring a state-wide referendum before the rate of the tax could be raised by the Legislature, and to have the auditor general, rather than the revenue department, audit the tax collections.

Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, speaking for the minority, charged in a two hour debate that the sales tax "places a burden on those least able to pay and at the same time injures industry."

MILL WORKER FROM HANOVER IS DROWNED AT ALWINE QUARRY

Peter R. Karlus, 49, of 230 Locust St., Hanover, drowned while swimming in Alwine's brick yard quarry hole, near New Oxford, about 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Dr. C. C. Crist, Adams County coroner, investigated and issued a certificate of accidental drowning. Dr. Crist said Karlus and a group of Hanoverians had gone to the quarry to swim. William Groft, 19, who lives nearby, said all but one of Karlus' companions left the scene and that Karlus and the remaining companion continued to swim.

Companion Went To Aid

Groft was standing along the shore with his sister, Barbara, who called his attention to Karlus who seemed to be in distress. Groft said he jumped into the water to go to his aid. By that time the Hanoverian's body had disappeared beneath the surface.

Karlus' companion, whose name Groft did not learn, and Groft made numerous dives to locate the body, which the latter finally did find in about eight feet of water.

In the meantime, the alarm was given in New Oxford, and Dr. Kenneth W. Ehrhart and the rescuators of the fire company arrived in that order.

Try Artificial Respiration

Groft and Karlus' companion removed the body to the shore and started artificial respiration methods. Dr. Ehrhart took over when he arrived and the fire company resuscitator was pressed into use as soon as possible. Dr. Ehrhart estimated that nearly two hours were consumed in attempting to revive Karlus, after which he pronounced the man dead.

Mr. Karlus was employed by Revonah Spinning mills for about 30 years. He was a member of Hanover Aerie 1406, Fraternal Order of Eagles; Hanover Home Association and Hanover Lodge 227, Loyal Order of Moose.

Surviving are: His wife, Mrs. Grace Pauline (Star) Karlus; two children, Mary Louise and Peter Raymond Karlus Jr., both at home, and a granddaughter.

Funeral services Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Feiser Funeral Home, Hanover, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Nevins Smith, Interment in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Hanover. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening.

A Communist meeting is to be picketed by protesting citizens and the Communists plan to start a riot among them, thereby gaining favorable publicity. Cvetic is assigned to see that this plan is carried out. Upon informing the FBI, he is told to prevent the riot at any cost. Going along with the plans, he hires thugs to incite violence among the pickets.

DAD'S ROLE IS IMPORTANT TO THE YOUNGSTER

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE

Advice to father: Don't leave the bringing up of your child entirely to Mother. According to a noted pediatrician, it's harmful to the child's normal development.

Dr. Milton I. Levine, assistant professor of pediatrics at N.Y. Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, says a "real" father is essential to the normal growth and development of the child. He advises against letting the mother take the major responsibility of child raising, as is customary in many homes. He adds:

"The ideal situation is where the father represents the symbol of strength in the home. Having a real father—a man who is strong and knowledgeable and not averse to exerting reasonable authority in family matters—is a vital need in the development of personality in the normal boy and girl. Boys between the ages of six and 12 particularly, look to their fathers as models; through them they learn what men are like, and what is expected of them as they grow up."

Sets Example

For the daughter, he continues, the father is the example of what a man, a husband and a father should be. If the girl's father is a good model, there is a good chance that she will make a good and happy relationship with men in later life. He says:

"For a boy from the age six onward, it is most vital that he have a good father or father substitute. A male child must have a male ideal to focus on as a model. Many effeminate men have developed such characteristics because of lack of such a male ideal during childhood. Because such adults got too little of this masculine influence in their early years, they gravitated closely around their mothers and grew up with effeminate characteristics."

A boy without sufficient paternal attention often indulges in solitary activities like butterfly netting and stamp collecting instead of group activities such as baseball and other sports. While such interests are good, says Levine, they are not to be encouraged to the exclusion of basic boyish sports and other group interests. He counsels: "At this point it is vital that the father curb his personal desires for a round of golf or bridge, and get into the bringing-up picture swiftly by getting interested in what the child is doing and then gradually arousing his interest in other things."

Don't Use Adult Standards

On the other hand, he says, a father should not try to develop masculine traits in his daughter. Even if he is disappointed in having a girl rather than a boy, he should never let the girl know. Masculinity in girls, as effeminacy in boys, is psychological rather than physiological, he says adding:

"Nobody is born that way. Therefore, the importance of the father making the boy know he wanted him to be a boy, and his daughter to be a girl, cannot be stressed too strongly. The parent should encourage the normal sex tendencies of his children—that is boyishness in boys, girliness in girls, together with the development of skills and other physical aptitudes common to their specific sex."

Above all, cautions Dr. Levine, don't apply adult standards of conduct and achievement to children. Show delight in the accomplishments of your child without trying to prove you can do them better. Think in terms of your child's age and development and offer high praise when something worth-while is accomplished.

Match Industry In India Is Booming

GOA, Portuguese India (AP)—Goa's first match factory hopes to reach a target of 1,000 boxes per day gross output soon and plans exports to Pakistan, Portuguese East Africa, and British East Africa. Launched by M. B. Shah, formerly of Zanzibar, the venture followed Shah's 1950 visit to Japan. He purchased machinery from the Toa Selsi firm for $210,000. Two hundred workers are now employed.

SCOTS LIKE DRINK

NEW YORK (AP)—The Scots have come up with a drink they think is even better than their famous Scotch whisky, reports British Information Services. It's called "Atholl brose," known in the Highlands for centuries, but now being produced commercially. It's a combination of heather honey, oatmeal and whisky (some recipes include cream). It was mentioned in Robert Louis Stevenson's classic "Kidnapped," and dates back as far as the reign of James III.

"No Deals" Worley Says

candidate in the primaries. While he said he has no plans now to seek office again, Worley said it is likely he will run again for the same job although he would prefer to seek a Congressional seat.

"A seat in Congress is my ambition," he said today.

Worley won the Republican nomination from Chester H. Gross of York as Congressman from the 21st District in May, 1950, but was defeated by Democrat James F. Lind in the general election. This may he won the Republican nomination for Adams County assemblyman.

Hope For Referendum

With the friendlier attitude of other Republicans in the House, Worley said he now is hopeful that a bill he is sponsoring on the tax issue will be reported to the floor. This bill calls for a referendum vote by the people as to their preference between a sales tax or a graduated income tax.

Worley said he favored submitting the question "Do you favor a broad base tax?" to the people, and asking them whether they preferred the sales tax or the state income tax.

"I believe that on a major issue such as this, the people should have the right to decide," he said, "but we couldn't do that now because we had to balance the budget and there wasn't time for a referendum."

"Had To Do Something"

Prior to his vote, Worley was reported as saying: "I am against the sales tax as a matter of principle, but I will vote for it as the only way to end the present deadlock. The new exemptions make it more equitable for the average working man."

He added today that "even though I disagree with a sales tax measure, we had to do something." He said he still favors leaving the choice to the people. He emphasized again that had there been any "deal" involved in the voting of his vote, he would have voted for the tax.

"I turned down stuff like that before," he said, referring to actions he reported in May, when he told the Associated Press that he had received at least four propositions in exchange for his support of the then defunct sales tax bill.

Among those who opposed the sales tax was the Gettysburg Retail Merchants Association. Two telegrams were sent to Worley notifying him of this opposition, according to Frank Hower, secretary, to which he wrote: "I have been doing all within my power to prevent the enactment of a sales tax."

ican floor leader, denied the Democratic charge that the sales levy "taxes the poor man more than the rich man."

By the time the actual roll call on the sales tax was reached, numerous senators were out of their seats. The clerk called a few names at the beginning and end of the alphabetical list—and the decision was over.

Sen. John M. Walker, (R-Allegheny), presiding temporarily, snatched the roll call sheet from the clerk and announced the 32-18 vote.

Three Democrats—Sens. Frank Ruth (Berks), Bernard McGuinness (Allegheny) and Eustace H. Bane (Payette)—were recorded as voting no, although they made no appearance in the chamber.

Waves Of Bomb-Laden Yankee Warplanes Swarm To Aid Of Infantry On Porkchop Hill

SEOUL (AP)—Waves of bomb-laden American warplanes swarmed to the aid of Allied infantry and artillerymen today in the struggle for Porkchop Hill and Arrowhead Ridge in Western Korea.

Low-flying jet fighter-bombers flew more than 200 frontline missions by early afternoon, hurling tons of explosives and fiery jellied gasoline into Communist trenches which Allied shells and foot soldiers failed to knock out in four days of wild, see-saw fighting.

Broiling summer weather sent temperatures to 93 on the front Thursday.

Jets Zoom Low

Zooming low over the embattled hills, the Allied jets burned out or blew up more than 200 yards of trenches, 18 mortar positions and several Red bunkers.

Ground fighting slowed after the Air Force moved in.

Chinese troops still held parts of the northern slope of Porkchop Hill, with small groups of Reds entrenched on the western finger and the southeastern edge.

150,000 Red Rounds

On nearby Arrowhead Ridge, Chinese troops held the eastern outpost in front of the ridge. But ROK Second Division soldiers were still in position on the western outpost.

No fighting was reported on the main part of Arrowhead, which is held by the ROKs. But the roar of artillery kept up at a fairly steady pace. Since the battle began Monday night, about 150,000 rounds of Red mortar and artillery have fallen in the Allied sector.

Cleaning Up Toehold

A company of Reds circled around Porkchop at 4:30 a. m. and assaulted the southeastern side of the Allied outpost hill. American reinforcements chopped up part of the group that survived heavy shelling.

At last reports, U. S. troops were cleaning up the Chinese toehold on that part of the hill, routing them from trenches around the mountain base.

Air Force B26 invaders destroyed 24 vehicles on roads across the ocean waist Thursday night. Other bombers dropped explosives along the front.

Ike's Birthplace Called Firetrap

DENISON, Tex. (AP)—President Eisenhower's birthplace has been termed a firetrap. A team of fire-hazard investigators, making a routine inspection of the little white house in this North Texas city where Mr. Eisenhower was born, discovered:

A serious gas leak in an antique cookstove; two open chimney flues; a weakened structural condition caused by a previous fire which charred walls of a bedroom and hall.

They recommended painting interior walls with fire-resistant paint, filling chimney holes with concrete and replacing the roof with fire-proof material. The birthplace is now a national shrine.

YORK SPRINGS HEALTH OFFICER FIGHTING POLIO

Harry M. Fasick, secretary of the York Springs board of health and health officer of that borough, today asked residents of the town to participate in a general "clean up" program to help prevent polio. He promised full enforcement to borough health ordinances.

"We are beginning to enter what health authorities are indicating may be the nation's worst season for polio," Fasick said today.

"The professional people who are searching for the cause and cure of polio have laid part cause for this dread disease to the common house fly and over-all unsanitary conditions.

Required By Auxiliary

"With the belief that the citizens of our town will do everything possible to stop this dreadful disease from crippling or killing our children, I am asking the people of York Springs to do all they can to eliminate any cause for an epidemic of polio, by continuous spraying for flies and mosquitoes, keeping garbage in tightly closed cans, and most important, draining off stagnant waters and seeing that septic tanks and cesspools are in working order.

"We must do these things for the health and welfare of everyone. In fact it is required by our local ordinance No. 6. As health officer, I am required to see that the provisions of the ordinance are carried out to the fullest measure.

"The ordinance states in part that, the health committee from time to time shall make or cause to make a systematic check of the borough and cause all nuisances to be abated with promptness, and shall have full power at all times to call upon the owners or occupants of any premise for the purpose of inspecting same, in order to make an examination of all cellars, drains, sinks, and enter upon any lot of ground and to cause all stagnant waters to be drained off.

Penalties Provided

"If such conditions and nuisance be found to exist, the owners or occupants shall be given notice to remove the nuisance, and if notice is not obeyed within 12 hours, the offender, upon conviction before a local justice of the peace, shall be fined not in excess of $25 and costs and a further sum of $5 per day until the nuisance no longer exists."

Fasick added: "I believe that our citizens are fully aware of these problems and that they have sufficient civic pride to clean up such conditions without forcing the health board to send notices. We can all profit by a general clean-up program in having a healthier community for all."

Cross Party Lines On Safety Measure

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republicans and Democrats voted together to grant House approval to a plan to set up regulations for the underground storage of natural gas near Pennsylvania coal mines.

The highly controversial measure, tossed back and forth in the House for two months, yesterday was advanced to the Senate by the slim margin of one vote, 106-91. Balloting cut sharply across party lines. One hundred five votes are necessary to pass a bill.

Termed a safety measure by its backers, the bill requires State Mines Department certification for all storage reservoirs under or within 2,000 feet of active coal operations. It also provides for the charting and filling with the department of all such storage facilities.

Opponents contended the bill is designed to guard against an "accident that never happened."

IKE FLIES TO DROUGHT AREA IN TEXAS TODAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower took off today on a flying trip to Amarillo, Tex., for a conference on the Southwest drought with governors of six states.

The President's plane, the Columbine, sped westward in perfect flight weather after Eisenhower spent a busy 50 minutes at the White House. Turnpike Extension Bill Goes To Fine

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill providing for additional extensions of the Pennsylvania Turnpike went to Gov. John S. Fine today but faced an uncertain future.

The measure would permit construction of a junction point on the proposed northeastern extension of the turnpike. That extension will run from a point east of Harrisburg to the New York state line near Binghamton.

From this junction point the toll road could be extended eastward to the Delaware River and westward toward the upper reaches of the West Branch Susquehanna River.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Aged Vet Asks Permission To Remain in Gettysburg: William W. Banks, who served with Co. A, 18th Alabama Infantry, who is here for the Blue and Gray Reunion, today wires a formal request to the Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C. to permit him and other old veterans to remain here. "Whereas we, your guests, have been so comfortably housed, sumptuously fed, superbly served and entertained, I, self-appointed representative of a committee of the whole, am saying we do desire to remain here on this hallowed hill till Gabriel shall call us to that eternal party, where there is no strife, no bitter hate, nor bloodshed," the old veteran wired to the Quartermaster General.

School Districts Affect Merger: Merger of the Oxford Twp. and Union Independent School Districts was effected Wednesday evening in the Oxford Twp. election house. The two school boards were the first in Adams County to unite under provisions of Act 157, approved May 7, 1937, by the State Legislature. John L. Staub, former vice president of the Union Independent District, was elected president of the merged board.

Board Accepts Sum From PWA: A resolution formally accepting a PWA grant of $25,631 was passed by the New Oxford School Board at a special meeting. That action will be communicated to the PWA and then arrangements will be rushed for advertising for bids on the addition to the present public school building at New Oxford. Dr. Wilbur Miller, New Oxford physician, and head of the board of education said the work in the badly-needed addition may get underway in six weeks.

Start Removal of Reunion Camp: Removal of the veterans and the regular army camp went forward swiftly today as the occupants vacated the tents and grounds.

40,000 Attend WPA Exhibit on Battlefield: An exhibit that is attracting visitors to the battlefield here is a miniature model of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial made by WPA artists at the request of the Pennsylvania State Commission that planned the Blue and Gray Reunion. Models of the light have been presented to President Roosevelt and to the governors of each state. The battlefield exhibit has been placed on view less than a week, and since that time has been visited by more than 40,000 persons.

Meals Elected To Health Board: Filling a vacancy caused by the resignation of Samuel D. Rhine from the Gettysburg Board of Health, the borough adopted the recommendation of Chairman Frank B. Sionaker of the Health Committee and elected William L. Meals, Esq., a former Health Board president, for a term of one year. The election was unanimous.

Eshelman-Barnhart: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnhart, Sr., Westminster Md., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Edna Ruth, to Mervin Carroll Eshelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Eshelman, Gettysburg. The marriage took place in Grace Evangelical Church, Lemoyne.

Heltbride-McClellan: In a wedding ceremony performed by a brother of the bride, Eva Hope McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. McClellan, Gettysburg R. 1, and Jonas Alfred Heltbride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas E. Heltbride, Union Bridge, Md., were united in marriage at West Fairview. The Rev. Martin R. McClellan, pastor of West Fairview Methodist Church, officiated.

Two Graduates of College Wed: Miss Grace Durbin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Durbin, Cumberland Twp., near Mt. Joy Lutheran Church, became the bride of Knute Sahle, of New York City in Brusa Chapel, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president, presided at the ceremony.

Just Folks

ENGINEERS ARE CAREFUL
For every railroad engineer
The rules are plain:
He must, unless the road is clear,
Slow down the train.

His train in motion, never he Should turn his back.
Mile after mile his eyes must be
Upon the track.

But thoughtless drivers chat with friends;
Aside they stare,
And never think that life depends
On taking care.

They'll drive, full-speed, without a fear,
A red light through;
And that, a wise, old engineer
Would never do.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE SECRET

One of the most beautiful stories I have ever read was written by Robert Herrick and published in 1908. It was called "The Master of the Inn." It is the story of two physicians who were in love with the same woman. She was pledged to one, but on a European trip she met the other, whose power and personality swept her from her earlier decision and she agreed to break her first engagement and marry the new acquaintance.

It turned out unhappily. The one to whom she looked for power broke her heart. She died. Broken also in heart was the man to whom this woman first pledged herself. He retired to a beautiful section of the country, where he established an Inn for the treatment of sick minds and souls. To this place, not knowing of the circumstances, came the physician who had taken from him the one woman whom he loved. He was broken in health. No longer did his skill as a surgeon serve him. The Master of the Inn cured him, brought him back to his former power. Before leaving for his hospital there was an intimate talk, and there was a discovery that revealed the life story of each man. "Then they were speechless in the face of the fact: the one had taken all and the sweet love turned to acid in his heart, and the other had lost and the bitter turned to sweet!"

"At last the surgeon rose and stood before the Master. 'I have learned the Secret,' he said, 'and now it is time for me to go.' For a long time the Master sat silent before the little pool where they both talked, his face graven like the face of an old man, who has seen the circle of life and understands."

Here in this little book has been told the story of two men. One gave all. The other took all. Kindness and selflessness had clothed the one with beauty, rare influence and genuine power. His was the successful life. He it was who revealed the Secret to life itself.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Memories to Keep."

Visitors Spend Half-Million at Anniversary: Bank clearings, representing money brought in from out-of-the-county sources during the four of five big days of the 75th anniversary have amounted to half a million dollars more than during the similar period the year previous, according to information obtained in banking circles. Edmund W. Thomas, president of the First National Bank of Gettysburg, disclosed that total deposits at that institution reached $400,000 for six banking days. In comparing these figures with the business of the same days of 1937, President Thomas said it doubled that figure.

AP Writer From Moscow Says Beria Likely To Get "Works"

Editors: Eddy Gilmore was an AP correspondent in Moscow from 1941 until 10 days ago, when he and his family left for the United States. Now in Stockholm, he examines various aspects of the purge of Lavrenty P. Beria from the standpoint of one who for 12 years observed the Russian government from the Kremlin's front yard.)

By EDDY GILMORE

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Lavrenty P. Beria's expulsion from the Communist party and Soviet government means that Premier Georgi Malenkov — and perhaps others—now feel strong enough or desperate enough to doom the supreme policeman to utter disgrace. In this mighty struggle for Stalin's power, which does not necessarily appear to have ended, the sensational action against Beria was a natural development.

Like so many other mysterious things about that mysterious country, Russia, when did it all take place?

Clue On June 27

Has Beria just now been kicked out of the party and government or did all this happen some time ago?

Just before I left Moscow, high members of the party and government on June 27 watched the premiere of a new opera at the Bolshoi Theater.

Oddly, very oddly, Beria's name was not listed among those present. "Do you suppose that it's already happened?" one Western diplomat asked me, referring to what we all expected in the power struggle—the inevitable arrest of someone on top.

Will Get The Works

The cold-eyed Georgian has been damned by the most terrifying phrase of all in the Soviet lexicon—an enemy of the party and people.

On top of this he has been branded an international imperialist agent, a sickeningly familiar expression.

From almost every angle, Beria has had it.

It seems certain that the Supreme Court, which now has his case in its hands, will give him the works.

Molotov's Friend In

The appointment of Sergei Kruglov, already a high-ranking policeman, is intriguing for this great lumbering fellow was and is a friend of V. M. Molotov.

What has Molotov, Stalin's old friend and now foreign minister, had to do with Beria's disgrace?

Aerialist Act Is Held Over At Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. — The team of Betty and Penny Fox, internationally famous aerial act known as "The Sky Dancers," has been held over for a second week by popular demand after their performance over the Fourth of July weekend. Betty and Penny will repeat the act, which a two-year survey by an insurance company thought was the most dangerous in show business, tonight at 10:30 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday at 2:30 and 10:30 p.m., in the amusement park owned by Roy Richwine.

The team performs on an 18-inch pedestal 125 feet above the ground. A new feature this weekend will be a "waltz of death" they perform on the high pedestal blindfolded.

Although Guinea fowl have been domesticated for 2,000 years, it is difficult to distinguish domestic varieties from those in the wild state.

Weekend Series In Brooklyn And St. Louis Vital To First Division; Yanks, Brooks Lose

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

First division standings in the hot National League pennant chase hinge on vital series starting tonight in Brooklyn and St. Louis. Chief American League interest over the weekend will center on Chicago where the White Sox open a five game stand against Cleveland with the runnerup slot in the American League race at stake.

Leo Durocher's suddenly impressive New York Giants, riding a six game winning streak and talking confidently of better things, invade the wilds of Brooklyn for three games with the first place Dodgers.

Phils Nip Brooklyn
Milwaukee's second place Braves visit St. Louis for a four game set with the Cardinals, whom they lead by half a length.

The Giants haven't cooled off since they buried Brooklyn 20-6 last Sunday. Yesterday they got a brilliant two-hit shutout from rookie Ruben Gomez to down the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-0. Brooklyn bowed to Philadelphia 6-5 and the Cards and Braves weren't scheduled.

The hustling White Sox shaved the Yankees' first place margin to five games in the American League by whipping Detroit, 4-2, while the New Yorkers were wilted before the southpaw slants of Boston's Mel Parnell 4-0. Cleveland stayed 5½ games off the pace with a 9-1 verdict over the St. Louis Browns. Washington beat Philadelphia 8-4.

Giants Climbing
In handing Pittsburgh its sixth straight loss, the Giants climbed within one game of the first division. They've been that close before this season but they've always flunked out under pressure.

The two Pirate hits off Gomez, the young Puerto Rican who bought his way out of the Yankee farm system during the winter because he didn't think the world champs appreciated him, were singles by Danny O'Connell and Eddie O'Brien. Gomez has a 6-4 record with the Giants.

The Dodgers, who beat Robin Roberts the last time they faced him, kayoed him in the eighth inning last night but then their own spotty pitching blew up and the Phils won the game with two runs in their half of the eighth. It was the first time in 29 starts that Roberts has failed to finish. Smokey Burgess, pinch hitting for Bob Miller who took over from Roberts, drove in the tying and winning runs with a double.

Chisox Win On Homer
Parnell made Casey Stengel's All-Star pitching selections look bad as he threw his second straight shutout at Stengel's Yankees. The victory was the 12th of the year for the 31-year-old lefthander. He's the first in the league to win a dozen.

A two-run homer by Sam Mele provided the winning margin for the White Sox who have lost only five times in their last 26 starts. The game was a replay of a May 27 contest which went 15 innings and ended in a 2-2 tie because of the night curfew. Fireman Harry Dorish worked 10 1/3 innings.

11th For Lemon
Bob Lemon won his 11th game of the season as he gave the Browns only five hits and drove in three runs. St. Louis got one safety off Bob Hooper who replaced Lemon in the ninth.

Ed Fitzgerald doubled home three runs in Washington's success against the faltering Athletics. Frank Shea allowed six hits and 10 walks but he went the route to post his eighth victory against a single loss.

Barons Are Spoilers In Eastern League

By The Associated Press

The seventh-place Wilkes-Barre Barons held the spoilers role in the Eastern League today.

The Barons tackled a 19-player Reading Indians array last night at Reading to score a 12-8, 10-inning victory and prevent the first-place Indians from lengthening their margin over the Binghamton Triplets. The Albany Senators whipped the visiting Triplets, 7-3. Binghamton trails the Indians by two games.

In other games the Elmira Pioneers beat the Schenectady Blue Jays 6-4 and dropped them into fourth place, a game behind Albany. The Williamsport Athletics scored a 5-1 triumph over the Scranton Miners.

48 To Take Part In Teen-Age Baseball

Forty-eight boys of the 13-16-year-age bracket signed up for the Teen-Age Baseball League at the Recreation Park Thursday evening and selected captain-managers.

Those who were named to pilot the teams are Phil Kenworthy, Ronald Collins, John Coleman and John Chamberlain.

This evening the managers will select their teams and a schedule will be drafted. League games are expected to start next week.

Williams Expects To Play In '54

NEW YORK (AP)—Marine Captain Ted Williams said he definitely will play with the Boston Red Sox next year and expressed the hope that he could get permission to participate in some winter ball to work himself into condition.

"It all depends, of course, upon whether the Red Sox still want me," Williams told Fred Corcoran, his business manager, in a cross-country telephone conversation last night.

Ted who arrived in the United States from Korea yesterday for a series of ear tests at Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland, Calif., told Corcoran he has no immediate plans since his discharge from the Marines is not due until October.

Williams said he expects to return to the U. S. for treatment of an ear ailment.

LIONS SPONSOR BASEBALL GAME OF OLD TIMERS

Plans are under way for another Old Timers baseball game this year, to be sponsored by the Littlestown Lions Club. The contest is scheduled for Friday, July 31 at 8 p.m. on the Littlestown Memorial Field. In case of inclement weather, it will be played Sunday, August 2, at 2:30 p.m. Proceeds from the game will go to the American Legion community ambulance fund. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 10 cents for children six to twelve.

Invitations have been sent to all former Littlestown baseball players, explaining that the American Legion has had several projects during the last year to raise funds for a new ambulance. With the trade-in value of the present 12-year-old ambulance, and the funds raised, approximately $5,000 is needed. There has been a solicitation of funds in the community and the Lions Club has contributed $200. The Old Timers game is planned to further aid this cause.

NEW BOSS FOR SOVIET POLICE HEADED SLAVE LABOR CAMPS

By The Associated Press
Sergei N. Kruglov, the new boss of the Soviet secret police, is a veteran police official who had been administrator of Russia's slave labor camps.

He came to the attention of the Western world briefly when he served as Soviet security officer at the Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam conferences of the Big Three during World War II. For that he received the U. S. Legion of Merit from the United States in one of the last gestures of east-west amity before the outbreak of the cold war.

He is reputed to be a friend of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Decorated In '52
In October of last year he was elected a member of the reorganized Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party. Before the death of Stalin in March he was minister of Internal Affairs under Beria and charged with the task of handling the millions of slave laborers in the many camps in the Soviet Union.

After Stalin's death the ministries of internal affairs, state control and state security were combined into the single ministry of internal affairs under Beria. In 1952 Kruglov won a high decoration upon the completion of the new Volga-Don Canal, one of the big waterway projects in the Soviet Union. This was interpreted as recognition of Kruglov's efforts in supplying slave laborers to build the canal.

She reported that there were three deaths, one guest returned to the home and there was one new guest at the home during June.

Mrs. Mervin Murray, chairman of the needs of the home committee, reported on the possibility of purchase of plastic seat covers for the rockers and chairs, and was authorized together with the executive committee to make such purchases. A runner was furnished for the piano, she added. A request for additional plastic covers for mattresses has been made by the matron of the Women's building, she told the group.

Meet Next August 13
Mrs. Lloyd Kleinfelter, vice president of the group, who presided at the meeting, expressed the appreciation of the unit for "all those who cooperated in the annual visiting day."

Donations of jelly and a doll were received from members as well as $10 from the Men's Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville.

Six new members were introduced. Mrs. Sewell E. Kapp spoke on the need for additional refrigerators at the home to keep butter, jellies and other foods in better condition.

Thirty-one attended the meeting. The next session will be held August 13.

SEVEN INJURED

less seriously injured were treated and discharged. The others remained as patients.

State police said that the Gibhart car, being operated by Thomas, traveling north, had overtaken an automobile operated by John Smith, 32, of 318 Fourth St., Hanover, which was also traveling north.

As Thomas overtook the Smith car, he saw another automobile, its driver not identified by police, also traveling north in front of the Smith automobile.

Before Thomas could pass, a car operated by Mrs. Kuhn approached, traveling south. The Kuhn car struck the Thomas automobile broadside, and overturned, police said. Then the Smith automobile struck the Thomas car in the rear.

Damage to the Smith car was estimated by police at only $50, but the damage to the Gibhart car was estimated at $1,500 and to the Kuhn automobile at $1,850.

15 MAY HAVE DIED IN FOREST FIRE IN CALIF.

WILLOWS, Calif. (AP)—As many as fifteen men may have burned to death during the night as a small forest fire burst into explosive action and trapped a fire-fighting party near this Northern California community.

The estimate came by field radio from men trying to control the blaze in Mendocino National Forest.

The Forest Service and the Glenn County sheriff's office said they had no exact information.

The blaze, which started innocently enough yesterday, suddenly whipped into a furious, explosive force that beat the flames through the woods at tremendous speed.

Some of the dead were believed to have been members of the New Tribes Mission, which has a colony west of Stonyford, near Colusa.

BELGRADE (AP)—Yugoslavia, as a token gesture of its sympathy, has sent ten pre-fabricated houses to Turkey as a good will gift to aid the homeless after a recent earthquake there. Short of housing itself, it made a similar gesture by supplying 30 houses to the Dutch after the floods in the Netherlands earlier this year.

Nominate Railroader For ICC Position

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has nominated Howard G. Freas of Oakland, Calif., for membership in the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The 53-year-old Freas, a native of Fogelsville, Pa., was named yesterday for the remainder of the term expiring Dec. 31, 1959, of William E. Lee.

Freas, a Republican, has served with railroads in Pennsylvania and California. For the past 21 years he has been with the California Public Utilities Commission as rate expert, hearing examiner, and is currently in charge of the Commission rate division.

He's Driving His Cares Away!

There's a great industrialist in Detroit, and a well-known scientist in New York, and a famous statesman in Washington who will tell you that the best way to relax from the cares of the day is to get behind the wheel of a 1953 Cadillac.

And there are also thousands upon thousands of other Cadillac owners throughout America who will gladly add supporting testimony to these revealing statements.

For these motorists know, from their own personal experience, that there is no faster or surer way to relax and refresh than to take to the highway with a smooth, comfortable, quiet Cadillac car.

It makes a man feel good just to sit behind the wheel. As he glances about his Cadillac's gracious interior, he's reminded that he has made something out of his years—and that, in itself, gives a lift to his spirits.

And then, once he's out on the highway—well, in no time at all, he's as happy and contented and trouble-free as it's possible for a motorist to be.

He is surrounded with comfort—and his driving is so relaxing and effortless and enjoyable that his mind clears, as the miles go by—and his heart grows gay and his outlook bright and hopeful.

He has literally driven his cares away!

You really ought to try it sometime. Come to think of it, you ought to try it today... after your day's work is done.

The car is waiting—and so are we.

NEW URGENCY

TO BIG 3 TALKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The downfall of Lavrenty V. Beria as Red Russia's second most powerful man presented this challenging question today for the Big Three Western foreign ministers: does it foreshadow any change in Soviet foreign policy?

In immediate reaction to last night's Moscow announcement of Beria's expulsion from government and Communist party posts, experts appeared somewhat divided on this critical point.

There was some thought here that Beria might be made the scapegoat for policies which permitted the recent uprisings against Communist rule in East Germany. But other opinion held that Beria's fate should be considered primarily as a dramatic incident in Soviet internal politics.

At any rate, the development gave new urgency to the Big Three talks between Secretary of State Dulles, acting British Foreign Secretary Lord Salisbury and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France, whose conferences open this afternoon (about 2 p.m. EST).

The farthest faint star which can be seen by the Palomar telescope is believed to be seen by light which has been traveling toward the earth for two billion years at the rate of about 186,000 miles a second.

PHILADELPHIA (P) - Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) vigorously defended defense budget cuts Thursday, asserting that "no American believes President Eisenhower would make any recommendation" to undercut adequate defense for the United States.

In a speech before a State VFW convention, Pennsylvania's senior senator also called for "good old-fashioned patriotism" and a strong, courageous defense "of the American Republic."

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—About 1,300 anti-Communist prisoners of war who escaped from Allied stockades returned to Pusan Thursday from a South Korean Army Replacement Center. They were re-assigned to civilian homes where they were sheltered and fed after their escape last month.

CHRISTIAN BEHAVIOR

Romans 12:1-2; 9-21

Memory Verse: Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good. Romans 12:9

Our neighbors and we, living in a suburb of Philadelphia, are busy in spare hours with lawns, shrubbery flowers and some gardening. Until recently the place was an open field. So a new neighborhood is growing up. The first concern was about soil suitable to what we wished to grow and then to establish a firm rooting of grass, plants and trees. It all reminds one of the developing of a good life. It suggests parables.

Paul was concerned about a life acceptable and pleasing to God. The first eleven chapters of his letter to the Romans are known as the "teaching" chapters. In them he discusses the fundamentals of Christian living. He makes it quite plain that a genuine life such as God would approve must be rooted in faith in Christ who came as the Saviour of all who accept Him. This is the gospel Christ came to preach. It is a gospel of grace and mercy. It takes the place of the law, even the Mosaic law and the numerous lesser laws established by the Jews through the years. The reason? No man could obey these requirements. Consequently there must be forgiveness and that pardon comes from God because of the Christ who fulfilled the whole law. Man's part is to repent and trust. Apart from this, the grace of God is a free gift.

But if faith is all that is required to obtain God's favor why be concerned about our behavior? This idea made itself felt in the congregations which Paul had established. Consequently he had to warn and correct them. Incidentally, we may observe that the same thought is entertained consciously or unconsciously among Christians today. Paul's epistles in this respect have a modern application. Being free of forms and needless man-made laws of worship and behavior does not mean that we can do as we please. In emphasizing free salvation in Christ implies that a new and God-approved life will follow. Good deeds will result. Generosity in giving will be another fruit. New attitudes towards each other will be observed among genuine believers in Christ.

Beginning with the twelfth chapter Paul urges behavior in keeping with the newly-accepted gospel of free salvation. He pleads for an applied religion and gives a list of virtues to be put into action. Love, zeal, prayer, hope, giving to the needy, patience are fruits of the new life. He urges kindness to your enemy. If hungry, feed him; if thirsty give him drink. A good and practical exercise is to check one's success or failure in regards to these virtues and actions. Another thing is to take a view of the world's need of just these qualities of high living. One will find himself quite unable to live in a manner wholly acceptable to God. But one can try and if one's faith is deeply rooted in Christ every effort will be blessed by a kindly Father. He known of the difficulties in the way of even the most sincere and the strongest, and there will be the reward of "well done thou good and faithful servant."

Do we have difficulty with our attitudes and behaviors? Then let us remember the power of love. The love that sent us the Christ; and the love we can, at least in a measure, reflect in our own efforts at genuine Christian living.

cation of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and used by permission.)

Combined Worship At A.M.E. Zion Church

The regular combined worship service for parents and children will be held at St. Paul's A.M.E. Zion Church, S. Washington St., Sunday. The pastor, Rev. J. O. Fountain, will speak on "Remember Now . . ." at 11 a.m. Music will be furnished by the Junior choir. Mrs. C. Louise Stanton, superintendent of the Sunday School, will speak briefly before the morning message.

The evening worship at 7:30 will include a sermon by the pastor, "The Whole Armor," with music by the Senior choir. The public is invited to attend.

It takes 20 years before a cork oak grows to producing size and 40 before the bark is of good quality.

DON'T TURN OFF THAT ALARM!

It's time to be up and doing! It's time to return to religion!

That's what conscientious leaders are crying. Civic, educational, spiritual, political, even military men are urging a return to religion . . . Why?

Because the principles found in the Bible are those upon which our western civilization is based.

Because the teachings of the Bible are the foundation of our own government—that each human has equal rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Because the commandments to love both God and man—to do for others as we would have them do for us—these are the laws of living as we have known it.

But greed for wealth, lust for power, jealousy, disregard for human life—such are the evils that weaken the pillars of our existence.

Right this minute appoint yourself a vigilance committee of one. Make certain that you and your family support your church and its activities. Let's have a return to religion.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

J. B. MATTHEWS, M'CARTHY AIDE, RESIGNS AFTER BLAST BY IKE

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — A vigorous blast from President Eisenhower, fired over the head of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), has blown J. B. Matthews out of the investigating job in which McCarthy had sought to keep him.

"Alien to America," the President said in obvious reference to the statement in a magazine article by Matthews that 7,000 Protestant clergymen are "the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus" in this country. McCarthy promptly accepted the resignation of Matthews, whom he has called "a star spangled American," as executive staff director of the Senate investigations subcommittee which the Wisconsin senator heads.

Relations Strained
The fast breaking developments which marked Matthews' departure underscored seemingly strained relations between Eisenhower and McCarthy, who several times have seemed on the verge of head-on collisions.

McCarthy, for years the center of controversy in Washington, was simultaneously involved in two other brushes with the administration. These came when the senator: 1. Moved to call before his subcommittee top officials of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), including Director Allen Dulles, for some possibly explosive questioning McCarthy accused Dulles, a brother of Eisenhower's secretary of state, of refusing to let the McCarthy subcommittee question a CIA employee.

"Completely Factual"
2. Aimed sharp criticism at a new State Department directive declaring that some Communist writers' books may be used in the U. S. overseas libraries. He got a swift reply indicating the department intends to stick to its guns.

Matthews, whose article about alleged communism in the ranks of Protestant clergymen had stirred up a bitter row, apparently acknowledged defeat within a few minutes after the White House made public Eisenhower's denunciation of his views.

He submitted a new letter of resignation as executive staff director of McCarthy's subcommittee, with a defiant declaration that his article in the American Mercury magazine "is completely factual and fully documented." He has emphasized that he wrote that the vast majority of clergymen are loyal.

McCarthy, who had filed away an earlier resignation, accepted this one.

STATE DEPT. STANDS GROUND IN BOOK FUSS

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department stood its ground today in the face of Sen. McCarthy's attack on its new declaration that U. S. overseas libraries can stock some Communist-written books.

"Completely ridiculous," was the way the Wisconsin Republican described the department's policy order yesterday. He sent a sharp summons to Dr. Robert L. Johnson to appear in defense of the order next Wednesday before the Senate investigations subcommittee which McCarthy heads.

But Johnson, retiring chief of the International Information Agency (IIA) which operates the 189 libraries in 63 foreign countries, quickly served notice he does not plan to budge.

Johnson Statement
In a statement last night, Johnson said the libraries "are in business to advance American democracy, not Communist conspiracy." Agreeing with McCarthy that Communist authors do not speak affirmatively for democracy he said:

"But it would be unwise to foreclose the opportunity of using, to serve affirmatively the ends of democracy, something that a Communist has written for an entirely different purpose."

"In some cases the most effective way to refute propaganda of the Communists may be to turn the words of their own writers against them."

McCarthy's summons challenged Johnson to tell the subcommittee the names of "those Communists whose writings you feel 'serve the ends of democracy.'" The senator asked Johnson to bring with him "the individual or individuals responsible for the decision to continue the purchase of books by Communist authors."

DRAW THIN LINE BETWEEN FACTS OR PROPAGANDA IN CIA PROGRAM

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—That the difference between information and propaganda can be a thin line, sometimes practically invisible, is illustrated by the President's Committee on International Information Activities.

Not that this was the committee's intention. It expressed great distaste for words and phrases like "cold war" and "psychological warfare" and "propaganda." It doesn't want them used in connection with this country's overseas information program.

But a person on the receiving end, after reading what the committee says, may have difficulty distinguishing between information that is strictly information and information that might be considered propaganda.

Unfortunate Terms
The committee has been occupied with the problem of making friends and influencing people abroad ever since it held its first meeting last January, after President Truman's inauguration.

Headed by William H. Jackson, a New York investment banker, the committee has just turned over to Eisenhower a number of recommendations, most of which have been kept secret and a few of which have been made public.

The committee said: "Cold war" and "psychological warfare" are unfortunate terms. They do not describe the effort of our nation and our allies to build a world of peace and freedom.

Terms May Disappear
"They should be discarded in favor of others which describe our true goals. New terms are needed to express the solidarity of freedom-loving men and women everywhere."

So terms like "cold war" and "psychological warfare" may disappear from the language of government officials.

But what is this information program—it's been in operation for years already—and what will it attempt to do as a result of the committee's recommendations?

A Statement Of Purpose
The committee explained: "The primary and overriding purpose of the information program should be to submit evidence to the peoples of other nations that their own aspirations for freedom, progress and peace are supported and advanced by the objectives and policies of the United States."

"The efforts of all media—radio, press, and publications, motion pictures, exchange of persons, and

Fine Issues More Execution Respites

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine Thursday issued another in a long series of respites postponing the scheduled execution of four convicted Philadelphia slayers.

The order put off the execution of Edward Hough for the 28th time from July 20 to the week beginning, Nov. 23. He was convicted in the 1947 shooting of a Philadelphia policeman.

The other three—David Darcy, Harold Foster and Harry Zietz—received their 18th stay, from July 27 to the week beginning Dec. 7. They were convicted in a 1948 killing during a Bucks County tavern holdup.

The governor's office said the respites were granted because action is ending on both cases in the federal courts.

Two Men Lead In Soaring Contest

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—The 20th National Soaring Contest shaped up Thursday as a two-man battle between Paul MacCready and Stephen Bennis. But Paul Schweizer was not far behind.

Bennis, of East Orange, N. J., gained ground yesterday as he won 75 points with a sailplane flight to Tunkhannock, Pa., and part of the way back. He was the only one to reach Tunkhannock, the goal set by the judges. It made his total 295.

MacCready held first place with 300 points, 244 of them for his 215-mile hop to Hartford, Conn., on Tuesday's opening day. He reached Dimock, Pa., yesterday.

Schweizer, the local favorite, got as far as Laceyville, Pa., to win 54 points and boost his total to 285.

If you're outfitting your kitchen with mixing spoons, you'll find three or four long-handled wooden ones of graduate size, are extremely useful. It's also handy to have two metal mixing spoons, one with a perforated bowl.

libraries and information centers—should be directed to this end: to show the identity of our goals with those of other peoples."

Avoiding Propaganda
This seems to say the committee wishes to depend strictly on information in dealing with the minds of people overseas, for it clearly stated in its recommendations that a "propaganda note" should be avoided.

But if the basic purpose of the information program isn't to win friends for this country, and away from Russia, what is it? The committee seemed to agree this was the basic purpose, for it added a phrase:

"These goals and desires which we hold in common must be explained in ways that will cause others to join with us in achieving them."

"WHOOOP IT UP" AFTER SALES TAX PASSES HOUSE

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Republicans—tense and confused through months of tax haggling—reacted like seniors at graduation Wednesday night when the sales tax passed.

A roar of cheers and applause rose through the House chamber when Speaker Charles C. Smith— with a big grin on his face—announced the 106-96 vote.

The action raised hopes for a speedy adjournment—probably by the end of next week—after more than six months of weekly trips to Harrisburg.

Cheer Democrats
Even the Democrats were cheerful. They felt passage of the sales tax by the Republicans had provided them with a first class issue for next year's gubernatorial campaign.

The celebration actually started when the Republican caucus broke up with the announcement that the required 105 votes had been found at last after five months of trying.

An informal songfest broke loose on the floor of the House with "Pack Up Your Troubles In Your Old Kit Bag." Reps. James J. Jump (R-Luzerne) and Wrayburn Hall (R-Potter) led the singing.

Smith, himself, set the pattern when he slapped a reporter on the back and shouted: "We finally have a Republican organization in this state."

STENOGRAPHER BURNS TO DEATH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 32-year-old stenographer burned to death in a South Philadelphia home early Thursday despite efforts of her brother to locate her as smoke and flames raged around him.

The victim of the fire was Victoria DeGregorio.

Her brother, Nicholas, 37, finally forced by the flames and intense heat to give up the search, hung from a second floor window by his fingertips until neighbors gathered below. Then he dropped into their arms.

DeGregorio escaped injury but was detained at Graduate Hospital suffering from the effects of the smoke and severe shock.

The brother and sister, whose parents are dead, were the only occupants of the three-story home.

Nicholas said he was asleep in the third floor rear room when the fire started. He was awakened by the cries of his sister, who had been sleeping in her second floor front room.

Court Rules Meyner Is Jersey Candidate

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—The State Supreme Court has ruled Robert B. Meyner, Philadelphia lawyer, was the lawful Democratic gubernatorial candidate in New Jersey.

Elmer H. Wene, Vineland chicken raiser, who lost the April 15 primary election to Meyner by some 1,500 votes, sued to have 3,000 votes in Hudson and Warren Counties nullified on grounds the voters had not signed declarations of party affiliation.

Superior Court Judge Joseph L. Smith several weeks ago ruled if there were a fault in the election it lay with election boards and not the voters. Smith said the voters could not be deprived of their right to ballot.

The Supreme Court, which interrupted its summer vacation to hear Wene's appeal from Smith's decision, upheld the lower court by a 6 to 1 vote with Chief Justice Arthur T. Vanderbilt dissenting.

WON'T LEND DOG TO LURE FLEAS

CLEVELAND (AP)—It was an ordinary day at the Cleveland Animal Protective League office. Then the phone rang.

"I want to borrow a dog for a couple of days," shrieked an excited female voice.

"Why?" asked the league director, Henry J. Leffingwell.

"I've got fleas," said the voice.

"I thought one of your dogs could roam around the house a couple of days and pick them up."

"We don't lend our dogs," said Leffingwell.

The receiver slammed on the other end.

"What would my dogs have thought?" he asked.

Americans Flock To British Isles

LONDON (AP)—Britain's tourist trade got off to a flying start in the first three months of this year. A record number of 96,000 tourists, including 16,000 from the United States, came to brave the cold and fogs of a British winter, a current survey shows.

The government-supported Travel and Holidays Association estimates that a quarter of a million Americans were among 800,000 foreign visitors here during the coronation.

BURRO PROTECTION
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Shooting the little burros roaming the California deserts—for dog food or merely for target practice—used to be common.

But a new law makes such slaughter a misdemeanor punishable by as much as a year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

WOULD OUTLAW RUSS ROULETTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill to prohibit the deadly game of Russian roulette among two or more persons is being considered by a House Committee today.

Penalty for playing the game would be a maximum fine of $1,000 or five years in jail or both under a bill sponsored Wednesday by Reps. George X. Schwartz and William L. Zeitz, both Philadelphia Democrats.

Russian roulette is played by loading one cylinder of a revolver and spinning the cylinder. Each person then places the revolver barrel against his head and pulls the trigger.

Other new House bills would: Allow applicants to qualify for state barbering licenses by studying one year at a barber's school and serving one year as an apprentice with a registered barber—Rep. John J. Mikula (R-Luzerne).

Increase the salaries of magistrates in Philadelphia from $7,500 to $9,000 a year—Rep. Joseph A. McGee (D-Philadelphia).

Exclude fines or fees in fixing the salaries of police officers of a municipality or township—Reps. Nicholas Kornick (D-Fayette) and Adam T. Bower (R-Northumberland).

"Old George" Dies In Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Old George is dead.

For 13 years the man of mystery had lived at the Gospel Mission. And for 13 years as his self-assigned task, he daily cleaned the sidewalk in front of the mission.

Officers of the mission said nothing was known of Old George beyond his age, 68, his formal name, John Lloyd George, and the fact that he was a native of Utah.

He was described as apparently well-educated and widely traveled.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Philip Wilkie, son of the late Wendell L. Wilkie, 1940 GOP presidential nominee, called on President Eisenhower at the White House Thursday.

Wilkie, who is a member of the Indiana State Legislature, said he had "just a nice pleasant visit, entirely social." He added that he discussed no business with the President.

For thousands of years, honey was almost man's only source of sweetening.

Secret Session Held On Truce Talk; Recess To Saturday

By SAM SUMMERLIN

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Allied and Communist negotiators met secretly for 29 minutes today, then recessed until tomorrow their efforts to clear the final obstacles to a Korean truce still bitterly opposed by South Korea.

There was no hint whether the top-level delegations made progress toward signing an armistice during their first meeting in 20 days.

But the scheduling of another session for 11 a.m. tomorrow (9 p.m. EST today) was regarded as an indication that no serious disagreement had cropped up.

Informed quarters speculated that much of the session was devoted to Communist demands that the U. N. Command guarantee South Korean compliance with armistice terms. President Syngman Rhee has threatened to pull his 16-division army out of the UNC and fight on alone to unify his nation.

There also was speculation that the delegations swapped information on when members of a five-nation neutral supervisory commission could meet in preparation for signing a truce whether or not South Korea objects.

In their reply Wednesday, the Reds suggested that the full delegations convene to "discuss implementation of the armistice agreement" and to work out various preparations necessary before the signing ceremonies.

20-Day Recess

One source pointed out that the prisoner exchange agreement already signed calls for the two sides to trade up-to-date prisoner rosters before a truce is signed. It also provides that the lists be checked before the signing.

There has been no announcement of lists being exchanged.

Resumption of the negotiations came after a 20-day recess which followed Rhee's release of some 27,000 anti-Communist Korean War prisoners.

"Mails" Letter And Firemen Respond

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Emmet Hanley's face was as red as the fire alarm box.

Firemen summoned by an alarm reported that Hanley had mistaken the box for a green mail box, and pulled the lever to post a letter. He was not held.

The cork oak will grow in 23 southern states of the United States.

SEN. M'CARTHY TOOK BEATING ON MATTHEWS; WAS "ADMIRER"

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy of Wisconsin took a beating on the case of J. B. Matthews. He got into trouble almost from the moment he hired the man. In the end he ran head-on into President Eisenhower and the American clergy. Then he folded, but not until then.

McCarthy seemed fascinated by the 59-year-old Matthews, a chubby-faced man whom the senator called a "star-spangled American" and an "outstanding authority" on subversion. He considered himself one of Matthews' "pupils and admirers."

Three weeks ago he hired Matthews as executive director of McCarthy's Senate investigating subcommittee staff.

Claimed He Knew
Shortly afterwards the American Mercury magazine appeared with an article by Matthews. The opening paragraph said Protestant clergymen comprise "the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus." And Matthews' article said further that in the last 17 years the Communists had enlisted 7,000 Protestant clergymen as spies, Communists, fellow-travelers or dupes.

Matthews claimed to be in a position to know. He had been a fellow-traveler himself.

He was a Methodist minister but later, when he became a Marxist Socialist and a fellow-traveler, attacked the clergy as tools of capitalism. He worked with Socialists and Communists in 28 front organizations until he got fed up with the Communists, too, and became an anti-Communist.

Got Into Trouble
Seemingly without great difficulty, he shifted from accusing the clergy of being tools of capitalism to accusing thousands of them of being tools of communism.

For years he has been a professional expert on communism and subversion. But when McCarthy hired Matthews and then the American Mercury article appeared, the senator found out he was in trouble. McCarthy, a Roman Catholic himself, has steered clear of involvement with the clergy of any faith.

When four of the seven senators on his committee demanded that Matthews be fired, McCarthy said no. He had Matthews' resignation but wouldn't accept it. The Democrats took the fight to the floor of the Senate yesterday. McCarthy backed up a little, but not to the point of getting rid of Matthews. And then the White House made an announcement.

Quit Right There
A Catholic priest, a rabbi and a Presbyterian minister, representing the National Conference of Christians and Jews, had sent President Eisenhower a telegram which didn't mention Matthews by name but denounced his attack.

Eisenhower, in a reply which didn't mention Matthews or McCarthy, said: "Generalized and irresponsible attacks that sweepingly condemn the whole of any group of citizens are alien to America."

It was right there that McCarthy quit. He accepted Matthews' resignation.

Two Amendments Get Senate Okay

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two proposed amendments to the state constitution—one providing for annual sessions of the General Assembly—have completed their tour of the 1953 Legislature.

Both won Senate passage yesterday after earlier approval in the House. The legislation must be passed by the 1955 Assembly and approved by the people to become law.

The other proposed amendment would permit absentee voting by Pennsylvania war veterans prevented from attending the polls by injuries or disease that keep them bed-ridden or physically incapacitated.

Rehabilitated workers who overcome their disabilities prove to be safe, regular, productive and steady workers, says the Pennsylvania Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation.

TRUCKERS CLING TO HOPE DESPITE HOUSE SETBACK

HARRISBURG (AP)—Supporters of a bill to increase weight limits of trucks in Pennsylvania clung to a hope today of reviving it despite a surprising 86-105 defeat by the House.

Two backers of the controversial measure changed their vote from "yes" to "no" to place themselves in position to seek a second vote at a later session.

That is a normal parliamentary move to give a defeated bill a second chance to muster the necessary 105 votes.

Hotly Debated Issue

The legislation, a hotly debated issue in the General Assembly for years, would increase maximum weight limits of commonly used trucks from 45,000 to 58,500 pounds. It was backed by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association.

Actually, the vote was 88-103 since two of the bill's supporters changed their vote. That left it seven votes short of passage.

Backers of the measure appeared confident of victory when last night since they withheld the issue was called up for a vote speeches urging its passage. A number of arguments were made against it on the floor.

Statement Cost Votes

The turning point on the issue came in a dramatic moment when Rep. Baker Royer (R-Lancaster) chairman of the House Highways Committee told the House in replying to a question:

"The bill does not conform to recommendations of the Joint State Government Commission."

Backers of the legislation said that statement lost votes for the bill.

Royer also is chairman of that legislative research group which studied the whole problem of truck weights on Pennsylvania's highways after Gov. John S. Pine vetoed a 1951 bill to boost the limits.
